FRSA Donating to Local Charities during Next Week's Trade Show

Committee culminates year-long charitable project with formal presentation to Shepherds Promise and Arnold Palmer Medical Center Foundation of goods and cash valued at over $4,000

Winter Park, FL - The Florida Roofing, Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors Association (FRSA) Ladies Committee have been working on a year-long "Mission of Sharing" which will conclude on Friday, June 15th during the FRSA annual trade show at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando, Florida. The group, along with the participants of the convention's Kids Program, will be gathering at 1:30 pm in front of the trade show entrance (Rosen Center, Gatlin Hall) with representatives of Shepherds Promise to present a cash donation plus supplies for both the mothers and babies residing at the group's center. The FRSA ladies and children will also be presenting hand-crafted bereavement boxes and prayer squares to a delegate from Arnold Palmer Medical Center Foundation.

Shepherds Promise is a non-denominational organization providing an opportunity for women in domestic and/or economic crises to become self-sufficient. The Arnold Palmer Medical Center Foundation is the group that supports the Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children.

The 85th annual FRSA trade show – the Southeast Roofing and Sheet Metal Spectacular – is a showcase for the latest roofing and sheet metal supplies and services. There will be 249 companies exhibiting – representing businesses from all over the world. The event will run from June 14 through the 16. The group's annual convention is held in conjunction with this event.

Members of the press are invited to attend the presentation and visit the trade show.

FRSA is an 85-year-old trade association consisting of over 800 members. Its main purpose is to foster ethical business practices and protect consumer interests.
