Rosen Shingle Creek New Venue for FRSA Annual Trade Show and Convention

Winter Park, FL – The Florida Roofing, Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors Association will be holding their annual trade show – the Southeast Roofing and Sheet Metal Spectacular – and their convention in a new location this year – the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando, Florida. The dates are June 13 – 16, 2007. The resort is nestled on a 230-acre site east of the Orange County Convention Center – the home of last year’s trade show. The 1,500 guest rooms are conveniently located in the same complex as the trade show and offer luxurious first-class accommodations with stunning views of magnificent cypress trees and lush vegetation.

FRSA’s trade show – The Southeast Roofing and Sheet Metal Spectacular – is the largest regional roofing show in the country. Busy roofing and sheet metal contractors throughout the State of Florida consider this event a one-stop opportunity to do business with major industry manufacturers and suppliers.

Convention activities include:

- Education courses designed specifically to address the needs of the roofing contractor including a total of 25 hours of continuing education courses approved by the CILB, Dade County and the Florida Board of Architecture (select courses).
- The grand opening of the Southeast Roofing and Sheet Metal Spectacular on Thursday, June 14th
- Golf, Bowling and Fishing Tournaments
- Over 10 hours of open opportunities to visit the exhibitors on the trade show floor
- A Blues Brothers Theme Party
- Programs designed for the ladies and kids
- Entertaining social events and networking opportunities
- A Saturday night gala reception and banquet featuring new officer installations and presentation of both the President’s and Campanella Award and Erick Kand’s Comedy Hypnosis Show.

For additional information on exhibiting at the trade show or participating in the convention, visit the FRSA website at www. floridarroof.com or call Lisa Pate at FRSA – 407-671-3772, ext. 157.

FRSA is Florida’s Association of Roofing Professionals. Consisting of over 800 members, its main purpose is to foster ethical business practices, protect consumer interests and promote the industries it represents. To learn more about the organization, visit their website: www.floridarroof.com.
