

The Florida Roofing and Sheet Metal Contractors Association (FRSA) Educational and Research Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization.

Founded in 1982, the goal of the Foundation is to educate the work force, management and owners of construction businesses, as well as other industry related professionals.

FRSA's Educational & Research Foundation offers a variety of ways to contribute to the industry and support industry "Excellence through Education," from Foundation Membership to Endowment and Scholarship Programs, the FRSA Educational Foundation is the largest industry-related Foundation in the Southeastern United States. With more than $230,000 provided in scholarships and new educational programming added each year, FRSA stays on the cutting-edge of industry education and quality standards.

FRSA Educational & Research Foundation

PO Box 4850
Winter Park, FL 32793

Phone: 800-767-3772

Fax: 407-679-0010

E-mail: meghan@floridarroof.com

Details and applications are available at:

www.floridarroof.com

"The generosity and support of the FRSA Educational Foundation has helped me to grow in immeasurable ways as a student at Mary Baldwin College." ~ Allie Brown, Recipient

2019 Scholarship Program

THE PROGRAM

Since its inception, the FRSA Educational & Research Foundation has awarded more than $230,000 in scholarships. The Scholarship Program is available to assist FRSA members and their families, along with employees (and their families) of member companies.

If selected as a recipient, the student will receive an award up to $2,500. Multiple awards will be granted. Awards are not renewable, but students may reapply to the program each year they meet eligibility requirements.

"The FRSA Educational and Research Foundation Scholarship has made an enormous difference in my life by giving me the opportunity to pursue a college education and help secure a promising future for myself and family." - Michael Bowers, Recipient

ELIGIBILITY

FRSA members, employees, and their families who plan to pursue post-secondary education in college or vocational programs on a full-time or part-time basis are eligible for the merit-based scholarships.

The criteria for selecting scholarship recipients include but are not limited to:

- Academic Performance
- Financial Need
- Leadership in school and community
- Honors
- Work experience
- Education and career goals

AWARDS

Scholarship recipients will receive funding for full-time study at an accredited post-secondary institution. Scholarship amounts will range from $1,000-$2,500. The amount awarded and number of scholarships distributed is based on funding available in any given year. Previous award recipients may reapply as long as they have maintained a 3.0 GPA (or the equivalent). Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender, disability, or national origin.

APPLICATION

Interested students must complete a scholarship application for either the undergraduate/graduate studies program or the vocational/technical school program. Completed applications and all required materials (official transcripts, letter of recommendation) must be received by or on the deadline date of March 31, 2019. Applicants are responsible for gathering and submitting all necessary information. Since applicants are evaluated on the information supplied, questions must be answered as completely as possible. All information received will be kept confidential.

- Application Deadline: March 31, 2019
- Application must include official transcript(s) and letter of recommendation.
- Awards will be announced and recipients will be notified by June 2019.
- Awards will be distributed at the FRSA Annual Convention.
- Scholarship funds may be used for educational expenses including tuition, books and materials.